DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 2-5,7,8 objected to because of the following informalities:

(a) Claims 2-5,7,8 are objected to because they include reference characters which are not enclosed within parentheses.

Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. See MPEP § 608.01(m).

(b) Claim 1 recites the limitation "the two electrical machines" in line 9.

(c) Claim 1 recites the limitation "the other" in line 14.

(d) Claim 1 recites the limitation "this connecting device" in lines 15-16.

(e) Claim 1 recites the limitation "such that" in line 17. It is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention.

(f) Claim 1 recites the limitation "the transfer" in line 22.

(g) Claims 1-5,7,8: The quotation marks need to be removed. Also, it seems as though Applicant is using the quotes to define various terms such as 'voltage setpoint value', 'electrical setpoint value', etc... Such terms should be defined in the specification.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 2837

3. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

It is unclear what applicant is claiming. The reference characters are not given patentable weight and so the claims do not make any sense.

(a) Claim 1 recites the limitations "the thermal engine", "the other", "the requirements", "the drive train", "the connection", "the one hand", "the error signal", "the comparison", "the measured value", and "this voltage". There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

(b) Claim 1 recites the limitation "its drive wheels". It is unclear what "it" is referring to.

(c) Claim 1 recites the limitation "it" in lines 15 and 17. It is unclear what "it" is referring to.

(d) Claim 1 recites the limitation "the other" in lines 32-33. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Also it is unclear what "the other hand" means.

(e) Claim 3 recites the limitations "the sum", "said value", "the values", "the torques" "the regime values". There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

(f) Claim 4 recites the limitation "it" in line 18. It is unclear what "it" is referring to.

(g) Claim 5 recites the limitation "the regulation", "the torque values", "the other situations", "the sum", "said mechanical setpoint value". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Art Unit: 2837

- (h) Claims 7 and 8 recite the limitation "it". It is unclear what "it" is referring to.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

5. Claim 1 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Laeuffer (FR2811944), translated using JP2002112407). The invention, as best understood by the examiner, has been rejected in the following manner:

Claim 1: A system characterized in that in the voltage is controlled in response to an error derived from the comparison (Fig. 3: 75 is a comparator) between a measured value of a voltage (Fig. 3: VHTM is the bus voltage) and a setpoint value (Fig. 3: VHTR is the standard signal).

Claim 2: a value is produced by correcting the error voltage (pg 2/6:0033 teaches filtering the signal).

Claims 6, 9: the transfer of power between the two machines is reversible (abstract, output from one is consumed by the other and vice versa).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3-5, 7,8,10,11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
